

THOMAS J. SLAGLE
thomasslagle@gmail.com (907) 321 5990
RESUME

EDUCATION

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY-1966 Ellensburg, Washington.
Bachelor of Arts Degree

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY-COLLEGE OF LAW -1986 Salem, Oregon.
Juris Doctorate (Licensed in Alaska and Washington)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

CRAWFORD AND CO –1970-1977 Anchorage, AK Adjuster. Investigated and adjusted casualty claims including automobile accidents, products liability claims and workers compensation cases. Specialized in field investigation of major injury cases.

STATE OF ALASKA-Division of Risk Management—1977-1983 Juneau, AK Claims Manager. Responsible for establishing and overseeing the state self-insured casualty claims program including oversight of the workers compensation adjusting contract and the resolution of negligence lawsuits against the state. Responsibility included overseeing reserves and extending settlement authority. Hired in-house staff.

ROBERTSON, MONAGLE AND EASTAUGH—1987-1989 Juneau, AK Attorney Worked three years litigating workers' compensation cases for insurance companies, including cases in front of the Alaska Workers' Compensation Board, Superior Court, and the Alaska Supreme Court.

STATE OF ALASKA—Dept of Law 1994-2004 Juneau, AK Asst. Attorney General Worked in the Special Litigation Section litigating tort lawsuits, specializing in maritime, Jones Act cases with issues that often overlap into workers compensation. The position included an active trial calendar. Oversaw several cases being litigated by private attorneys on contract with the state. The lawsuits frequently involved complex medical issues involving causation.

STATE OF ALASKA Dept of Education & Early Development (DEED)- 2006 to present. Working part-time as a Special Education Due Process Hearing Officer. This appointment involves annual training through DEED. The Hearing Officer is randomly selected on a case-by-case basis by DEED. The hearing is to resolve a Special Education dispute between a school district and parent(s) of a Special Education student.

PRIVATE ATTORNEY—2006-to present Juneau, AK Representing injured employees in workers' compensation matters.